Craig Hurter

Senior Director, Information Security (Deputy CISO)
State of Colorado Governor's Office of Information Technology

Craig has worked in the IT industry for over 25 years and has focused on security for the past 15 years. He started in security as a forensic analyst and incident handler. After doing that for several years he moved into leadership in the InfoSec space and has been leading security teams in different capacities for the past 10 years. Craig has experience in Higher Education, Healthcare, Software Companies, and State government as well as some non-profit experience. Craig is passionate about creating the Office of Know instead of the Office of No. Craig currently serves as the Senior Director, Information Security (Deputy CISO) for the State of Colorado Governor's Office of Information Technology.
