

13TH ANNUAL PEAK CYBER SYMPOSIUM

SPEAKER BIO

Patrick McCabe
Principal Architect
Keysight Technologies

Patrick is a cybersecurity and network visibility expert with 19+ years of experience in the industry. In that time, Patrick has worked with several federal agencies in the civilian, defense and intelligence communities. He's worked to help them build complex networking, storage, and cybersecurity solutions. He currently and serves as a subject matter expert in Network Visibility solutions for Keysight Technologies (NYSE: KEYS). Network Visibility is crucially important to cyber defense strategies and Patrick helps his clients shine light on the blind spots of their infrastructure and secure their data.
